

"PREACHING THE WORD"

2 Timothy 4:1-5

Conrad Quiros | November 17, 2026

2 Timothy 4:1-5

1 I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by His appearing and His Kingdom: 2 preach the Word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching. 3 For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but have itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, 4 and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths. 5 But as for you, always be sober-minded, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

Discussion Questions

1. If you were leaving behind your best advice for your children or those you love, what are some elements you'd be sure to include? How would you know your advice was godly and not worldly?

2. What have you witnessed or learned from more mature believers regarding what it looks like to "be ready in season and out of season"? Which specific aspects of their wisdom have you put into practice or desire to implement in your life?

3. What are you tempted to preach if not the Word? What might replacing those things with the Word of God look like?

4. When has someone "reproved, rebuked, or exhorted" you in this God-honoring way that Paul is describing? When has someone "taught you with all patience"? What were those experiences like?

5. Which of those two—reproving or bearing—comes more naturally to you? What would it look like for you to become stronger in the area where you're currently weaker?

6. Who is someone that you would love to see come to know or grow in Jesus? What would the justified or sanctified version of them look like?
