

FROM ONE MAN TO ANOTHER

“GUARDING THE GOOD DEPOSIT”

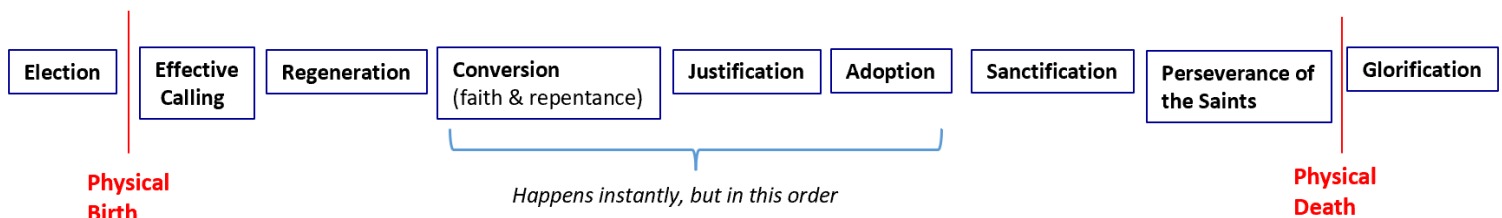

2 Timothy 1:12b-18

2 Timothy 1:12b-18

^{12b} But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am convinced that He is able to guard until that day what has been entrusted to me. ¹³ Follow the pattern of the sound words that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴ By the Holy Spirit who dwells within us, guard the good deposit entrusted to you. ¹⁵ You are aware that all who are in Asia turned away from me, among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. ¹⁶ May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains, ¹⁷ but when he arrived in Rome he searched for me earnestly and found me — ¹⁸ may the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord on that day! — and you well know all the service he rendered at Ephesus.

The Order of Salvation

⁹ [God] saved us and called us to a holy calling, not because of our works but because of his own purpose and grace, which he gave us in Christ Jesus before the ages began...

Notes

Discussion Questions

1. Describe a time when you were “refreshed” by someone in the faith.
What did they do that made a difference to you?
2. Circle where God has you on the “Order of Salvation” chart today.
All stages are indispensable, but is there a stage that is especially precious to you?
3. Are you able to look back and identify a season where you can rejoice in your suffering?
Why?
4. What are some ways we can “guard the good deposit” entrusted to us?
 - What are and things in which we can actively engage?
 - What are ways and things we can actively push against?

For Next Week

Spend some time focusing on next week’s passage: 2 Timothy 2:1-7.

Here are questions to help us understand the passage:

- How does 2 Timothy 2:1 connect to what has come before in chapter 1?
- How does Paul expect the faith to be passed on (verse 2)?
- Why does Paul use the metaphors of soldier, athlete, and farmer?
- How is each metaphor a fitting description of the Christian life?

Here are questions to connect the passage to our lives:

- Where do I tend to look for strength?
- How do I see myself in verse 2? Who has taught me? Whom am I teaching?
- How do Paul’s metaphors (soldier, athlete, farmer) apply to my life?
