

Small Group Questions – The Week of September 11, 2016

Scripture Reading: 1 Peter 2:9-12

Questions for Discussion

1. What does it mean when we talk about our identity?
2. What words do you regularly use to describe who you are?
Are these words more about who you are or what you do?
3. Look at 1 Peter 2:9-10. List the various statements of identity and briefly discuss what these phrases mean to you. Which one is the most meaningful?
Are any of these phrases surprising or confusing?
4. Now read 1 Peter 2:11. How do these two words – “sojourners and exiles” – relate to our identity?
5. Describe a time in your life when you felt most like a sojourner or exile.
6. How did you feel like a sojourner this week?
7. How do you think Peter’s life and his letter can help us on our sojourn?
8. What do you feel like you need most right now for the journey?
9. How do you think we will grow as a body of believers as we pursue this “Sojourn” theme together?
