Scripture Reading: Exodus 13:17-22

Questions for Discussion

1. According to Exodus 13:17-18, why did God lead the Israelites into the wilderness and towards the Red Sea?
2. Has God ever led you into difficult circumstances where you had no hope except for Him? How did that experience influence your faith?
3. According to Exodus 13:21-22, God led His people through the wilderness by giving them pillars of cloud and fire to follow. What does this tell us about God's character?
4. What resources has God made available to us today to lead us in our sojourn?
5. The incarnation of Jesus Christ means He knows what life in this world is like. How does that motivate us to pray to Him in the midst of difficult circumstances? How does it give us assurance of His power to lead us through those circumstances?
